“Some Are Stars” by Lucas Buddle

I’ve been broken down, I’ve been bruised, been disappointed cause of what I thought of you.
You said you never heard me when you did, I’m so confused, I guess now that I see it maybe I’m the fool.

What you see is what you see,
but that is only part of me,
there are so many parts
some are duds and some of stars.
There are so many parts
some are duds and some of stars.

I have forgotten about you more times than I can count, that’s the truth.
Years pass by, the past erased, loves like new, I see your face, not because of who you were but now I see the truth.

What you see is what you see,
but that is only part of me,
there are so many parts
some are duds and some of stars.
There are so many parts
some are duds and some of stars.

You are who you are and I am who I am.

What I see is my truth, but that is only part of you,
there are so many parts some are duds but most are stars
there are so many parts some are duds but most stars
