“Treasures in Heaven”

By Joseph W. Clokey

Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth,
Where moth and rust doth corrupt,
and where thieves break through and steal.
But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven,
for where your treasure is,
there will your heart be also.

Ask, and ye shall find;
knock, and it shall be opened unto you.
For every one that asketh receiveth,
and he that seeketh findeth,
and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

“He Ain’t Heavy...He’s My Brother”

Words by Bob Russell

Music by Bobby Scott

The road is long, with many a winding turn, that leads us to who knows where.
But I’m strong, strong enough to carry him;
He ain’t heavy, he’s my brother.

So on we go;
his welfare is my concern.
No burden is he to bear,
we’ll get there.
For I know he would never weigh me down;
He ain’t heavy, he’s my brother.

If I’m troubled at all,
I’m troubled by sadness that everyone’s heart isn’t filled with the gladness of love for one another.

It’s a long, long road,
From which there is no return.
While we’re on our way to there,
why not share?
And the load doesn’t weigh me down at all;
He ain’t heavy, he’s my brother.
He’s my brother, yes, he’s my brother.
