Prelude, Fugue, and Chaconne in C Major
by Dietrich Buxtehude

“Casta Diva” (excerpt) from *Norma
by Vincenzo Bellini

Translation:

Chaste goddess, who turns to silver
These sacred ancient plants,
Look down upon us,
Without cloud and without veil.

Temper, o goddess,
Temper these ardent hearts,
Temper also the bold zeal,
And spread over the earth your peace
That you have made to reign in the heavens.

"After You Hear Me Out" from
Glory Denied* by Tom Cipullo

Text:

After you hear me out,
If you don't want me around anymore,
If you want me to go, I'll go.
After you hear me out.

About the Song:

“After You Hear Me Out” is a painful and moving aria from Glory Denied sung to Alyce's husband upon his return from captivity. Alyce has moved on with her life, believing her husband to be deceased.

"Dich teure Halle" from
Tannhäuser* by Richard Wagner

Translation:

You, dear hall, do I greet again.
I greet you joyfully, beloved room!
In you his songs awake
And wake me from a dusky dream.
When he departed from you
How dull you seemed to me!
Peace flew out of me
And joy went out of you.
And now my bosom is raised high
As you now seem to me proud and noble
He who brings you and me to life
Is no longer wandering far away
And now my bosom is raised high
As you now seem to me proud and noble
He who brings you and me to life
Is no longer wandering far away
I greet you, I greet you!
You, dear hall, I greet you!
I greet you!
You, dear hall, I greet you!
